

The Annual Global Rosary Relay for Priests

Join a very special event by praying the Rosary at 18.00 local time in St.Peter's Square, Rome on 3 June 2016

Throughout this Jubilee Year of Mercy the rosary is being prayed daily at 18.00 local time in St. Peter's Square in Rome.

On 1 June a Jubilee for Priests commences in the Vatican, marking a time of retreat for priests, given by Pope Francis. This three-day event closes on the evening of 3 June, the feast of the Sacred Heart, coinciding with the Annual Global Rosary Relay for Priests, which is always held on this feast day.

Mark the end of this retreat time for our priests by praying the rosary in St. Peter's Square, or join in spiritually from wherever you are with people young and old alike. The Annual Global Rosary Relay was inspired by Our Lady where people from over 50 countries at 100 shrines worldwide unite in prayer for one intention - the sanctification of all priests. Unite your prayers with the prayers of millions of others for this intention. We also pray especially for Pope Francis, who has imparted his Apostolic Blessing to this unique global event.

Pray the Rosary, unite with your country and help encircle the world in prayer
