

How to participate in the Worldpriest Global Rosary Relay for Priests, Friday 16 June 2023

Bishops, as a matter of courtesy, need to be informed when a Global Rosary Relay Participating prayer location is located in their Diocese so that all may be aware and encourage all priests to participate.

Priests, invite your parishioners to either gather at the local-named participating prayer location. If unable to attend encourage your parishioners to join in from where they are located as the world gathers in prayer for all priests on Rosary Relay Day.

Religious Communities, through all available communication networks, please inform all religious communities worldwide to the Annual Global Rosary Relay for Priests so that all may participate throughout their communities worldwide.

Business Organisations, place promotional posters on office notice boards to allow staff the opportunity to join together or join prayerfully with their chosen prayer location local or worldwide. An extended coffee break would also be a good idea on Global Rosary Relay day.

Other Faiths, join in prayerfully from where ever you may be located to help unite the world in prayer.

Individuals, take time out to pray. Check the online participation list so that you may travel to the nearest participating prayer location or pray at your home, by the sea shore, in a beautiful location of your choosing or join with some friends. Make it a special prayer day.

At a participating prayer location, at each prayer location there is an appointed coordinator. Talk with them about how you could get involved; what help you could extend to spreading the good news locally of the Global Rosary Relay.

At School, Teachers, have the children involved by praying the Rosary at their school by checking the online participating location list. Have the children download from www.worldpriest.com the beautiful pictures that can be coloured in and given the local priests as a gift to say thank you and that you prayed for this priest.

At College, check in on line at www.worldpriest.com for the full list of participating prayer locations choose the one nearest to you. You may pray the allocated mystery the church is praying and pray whether alone or with a group of friends or start at your College a Worldpriest Global Rosary Relay Prayer Network in praying for a particular priest daily.

Lay Organisations at Informative meetings: present World Priest's mission & history, as well as the Rosary Relay during various meetings: Meeting with all the Vicars for the Archdiocese, Meetings with some Parish Councils.

Prayer Groups, in your local area download the information poster from www.worldpriest.com and email to all local prayer groups inviting them to get involved and promote this great day of prayer.
